November 2017

What
ARE You
Thankful for?

Most of us have an abundance of reasons to give thanks. With the holiday of Thanksgiving almost upon us I'm sure you'll agree, we don't need the month of November for us to be thankful. I have many blessings in my life and one of those is being a part of Camp Agawak for the past 28 years and having all of YOU in my life. That is the true bounty that lasts all year -- the bounty of support and friendship that makes us proud Agawak girls and women.

Over the years I've been extremely fortunate to have met many inspiring and amazing people -- the kind of people that change lives. These people include thousands of American and international staff from around the world. It includes countless campers who left a footprint on my heart, and vivid memories in my mind. It includes all the wonderful parents who gave us their daughters for the summer so she could develop substantially as a person. The camping industry is flooded with remarkable "camp people" who find passion in being able to influence the lives of others. I'm blessed to have met such genuine and amazing people.

We are living in challenging times and this foundation of support and friendship which Agawak provides makes me especially thankful for all of you. We provide each other with warmth and consistency and these traits bolster our spirits and hearts.

Thanksgiving is one day, but gratitude is how I feel all year long, because of all of you. Thank you for touching my life. Have a wonderful Thanksgiving. - Mary
